

Is Your Nonprofit Overworked and Overwhelmed?

10 Ways to Use Benevolent Vision:

- 1 Administrative Services
- 2 Board Development
- 3 Conflict Resolution
- 4 Consulting
- 5 Counsel
- 6 Executive Search
- 7 Grantwriting
- 8 Nonprofit Management
- 9 Startup
- 10 Strategic Planning

Benevolent Vision is dedicated to helping nonprofits that are ready to move to the next step in their development, but don't know quite how to do it. We are committed to sharing our passion and expertise with our clients and enabling them to achieve their own benevolent vision.

Benevolent Vision provides the small nonprofit with managerial, administrative and donor relations professionals who successfully conduct the business of the organization, interface with donors and facilitate board meetings. All the amenities of a large-scale nonprofit are available for a fraction of the cost of a full-time staff.

Ranlyn Tilley Hill, J.D., President

NONPROFIT MANAGEMENT SERVICES

- Executive Director
- Bookkeeper
- Administrative Assistant
- Data Entry Clerk
- Development
- Grants Administrator
- Marketing Specialist

The Benevolent Vision team seamlessly interfaces with the small nonprofit to represent it to donors, clients and the public. Our clients rely on us to collaborate on their behalf with experts in the fields of: law, banking, financial investments, accounting services, real estate matters, etc. We take your nonprofit from concept to completion without the need to hire additional full-time staff.

10801 National Blvd. #560
Los Angeles, CA 90064
(310) 441-9635
info@benevolentvision.com
www.benevolentvision.com