

Your Best In-House Counsel Often Comes From The Outside.

Kevin E. Rex, Principal
Attorney at Law

Business and Corporate Law
Mergers & Acquisitions

Kevin E. Rex is a principal (shareholder) at the firm of Lewitt, Hackman, Shapiro, Marshall & Harlan. He practices primarily in the areas of corporate and business law, representing mainly privately held and family owned businesses. As a result, his practice also includes estate planning, focusing mainly on succession issues. Mr. Rex has counseled clients on a variety of business and real estate matters including distribution arrangements, employment relationships, the purchase, sale and financing of real estate, intellectual property issues, equipment and real estate leases and loans, business and personal credit lines and other contractual issues. As part of his practice, he has also assisted numerous clients in structuring mergers and acquisitions and other exit strategies, having managed transactions ranging from a million to a hundred million dollars.

Mr. Rex has authored numerous articles and presented seminars on business topics such as Business Succession, Intellectual Property, and Estate Planning. He was also highlighted three years in a row in Los Angeles Magazine's Super Lawyers Edition as a Rising Star and is active in his community.
