

JOB LOSS IS NOT THE END!

It is a great opportunity!

As career transition specialists, since 1989 we have helped more than 26,000 people who have been forced to find a new career, business or job into exciting new positions.

Not to be confused with recruiters, we are part of a leaving employee's severance package. We take separated employees and assess what they would like to do, the availability of such work and then work hand-in-hand with them to achieve their goals!

Why do companies use us as part of a leaving employee's severance package?

- Outplacement is a more dignified and efficient benefit that helps ease someone out of an organization.
- Less chance for ensuing litigation. Outplacement reduces the terminated employee's anger.
- Morale of remaining employees improves.
- There is reduced stress on management.
- We are accountable to the company with written status reports twice a month, always keeping candidate data confidential.
- The company has a better reputation in the workforce.
- Lower costs. Quicker insertion of the employee back into the work force.
- Verifiable references. We have former clients you can talk with about how our services changed their lives.

Why do leaving employees love our services?

- Less shock because qualified help is available when it is most needed.
- Highly experienced, savvy counselors, our counselors have successfully worked with thousands of candidates.
- Assistance on how to organize the next phase of a career path right at the beginning and beyond.
- Personalized mailings to recruiters.
- Databases of companies and recruiters are continually updated.
- Faster action in terms of getting into the job market, which usually results in reduced job search time.
- Less stress and anxiety. Counseling is provided through every phase of the job search campaign. The candidate is never alone in his or her search.
- A chance for a higher salary. Many outplaced candidates win jobs with greater earnings.
- Support with our job development efforts.
- Lifetime support.

Our training and counseling provide state-of-the-art skills in self-marketing that will last a lifetime.

The most qualified people do not always get the best jobs, but outstanding candidates always get the best offers.

Our mission: make outstanding candidates.
